Tommy Barnes Wins Atlanta Open With 148; Yates Is Second

L. S. U. IS LIKELY TO KEEP TRACK HONORS IN S. E. C.

Dual Meet Performances Indicate Bengals Will Be Plenty Tough.

went outside the conference to whip Clemson, 88 to 43.

In the only other intra-conference dual meets, Auburn showed surprising form in beating Georgia Tech, 74 to 52. Vanderbilt defeated Centre College, 90 to 23, and Florida beat Presbyterian in the only other dual meets involving a circuit squad. Tennessee played host to several state colleges in another track event which the Vols won.

Kentucky, Sewanee and Ole Miss were idle Saturday.

Based on season's intra-conference dual meet performances the title fight should be between Georgia and Louisiana State with Alabama, Mississippi State and Tulane waging the hottest fight for a look-in at high scoring totals.

Interest in the conference's annual championship scrap is heightened by the fact nine individual champions of last year will be back to defend their honors.

TITLE HOLDERS.

This list of titleholders includes Baby Ray, Vanderbilt, discus; Dan Friend, L. S. U., shot put; Dave Bragin, Kentucky, mile and half mile; Chick Aldridge, Georgia Tech, two mile; Wilton Kilgore, Auburn, quarter-mile; Harry Harmon, Georgia, high jump; Burch Wilcox, Georgia, broad jump; Forrest Towns, Georgia, hurdles, and Arnold Bryan, L. S. U., pole vault.

Wins Second Atlanta Title

Tommy Barnes' victory in the Atlanta Open yesterday at Druid Hills, attained when he shot 148, one stroke better than Charlie Yates, gave the young star his second local title. He already held the city amateur title and is now the first golfer to hold both honors at once.

AMATEUR CHAMP ADDS NEW TITLE TO GOLF PRIZES

Jack Cook Finishes 3d; 2 Strokes Behind Barnes in Druid Hills Tourney.

By ROY WHITE.

Tommy Barnes was crowned champion of Atlanta's golfers with a victory Monday in the fifth annual open tournament on the Druid Hills course. Barnes carded a 76-72—148, to nose out Charlie Yates, former intercollegiate and western amateur champion by one stroke.

And with the open title, Barnes who now holds the city amateur championship, became the first player in Atlanta to hold both championships. Both were won on the Druid Hills course.

Barnes and Yates played in a foursome with Jack Cook, runner-up in the defending champion, who finished five strokes behind the leaders. Barnes defeated Mr. Hughes last summer to win the Atlanta amateur crown in a sensational afternoon round, after trailing through the morning round.

There was nothing sensational about Barnes' victory yesterday. It was good, consistent golf all the way, the kind that only a "hot" rock, with plenty of birdies and pars can beat.

Dr. Hughes, the defending champion, was handed the favorite, but that Druid Hills jinx which has followed the former city and open champion was again on his trail and accompanied him throughout the match. And Dr. Hughes has never won a major Atlanta title on the Druid Hills course, where he started to play the game.

SETTLES DOWN.

Trailing Weyman Jones, the morning leader by two strokes, Barnes lost a stroke to par on the first hole in the afternoon round and then settled down to par golf and a birdie on nine to be within a couple of strokes of the leader at the three-quarter mark.

Barnes lost another stroke to par on the 10th, but recovered with a birdie at 12 and finished with a par installing 36 for a 72, and the open title as Yates was two over par on the afternoon round.

Weyman Jones, who led the morning round with a 74, two strokes over par, went six over par on the outgoing nine in the afternoon and failed to get back into the running on the back nine. Jones, however, finished with an 80 for a total of 154, to give him 153 and low score among the professionals.

COOK SHOOTS 150.

Trailing Barnes and Yates, Jack Cook, young Atlanta Park amateur and former southern interscholastic champion, was third home with a par of 75s for 150. Billy Eager, 18 year member of Tech's golf team, was at 152, with Dr. Hughes at 153.

Sid Brown, professional at the Black Rock course, played the most unusual golf of the day at No. 8 in the afternoon round where he got a birdie and was never in the fairway. Brown sliced his drive into the woods and hooked his second across the fairway into the rough. He played a great recovery well past the cup and dropped a 25-foot putt for the birdie four.

Inability to properly negotiate the greens was the downfall of a majority of the players. The greens were plenty fast and most of the strokes were lost around the cups.

WATER, WATER, EVERYWHERE

Every golfer can point to some stroke on the course which decided the turning point of his game. The creek guarding No. 5 came in for plenty of non-parlor words, as did the creek guarding No. 17. But it was fast greens and poor putting which sent the scores skyrocketing.

Dan Sage Jr., a member of the University of Georgia golf team, won the class B title with a 162. He nosed out W. D. Ward by three strokes. Only amateurs were included in Class B following the morning round of 18 holes.

Gypsy Says He'll Chew Off Taped Arm of Luttrell

Frank Speer is loosening the roll purse strings for Thursday night's heavyweight wrestling card at the ball park. As if the Cowboy Luttrell-Chief Chewchki battle wasn't enough to excite the local mat populace, the match-maker yesterday went out and signed Marc Roche for the semi-final.

Roche, one of the first 10 wrestlers in the world, and the boy who has a record for never turning in anything but a great performance in Atlanta, will meet Abe Rothberg, the Jewish matman from New York, in the semi-final. Speer's spending spree probably will be well rewarded for advance interest indicates a wonderful crowd will be on hand. Tickets are now on sale at Marshall & Reynolds.

A 30-minute opening match will be announced shortly.

There has been some question as to what the Gypsy Chewchki will do about the tape Luttrell invariably wears on his arm. The chief has answered that. He says —"People want to know what Chief do with Cowboy and Luttrell. Me bite heem arm off. Me clean wrestler. No stand for three minute key business."

If Chewchki is a clean wrestler, however, he certainly has changed. It's hard to believe. His last matches here saw him producing knives, barbed wires and other weapons from his magic trunks. And he wasted no time using them on his amazed opponents. They have never been able to figure out the Gypsy. Even a thorough search of his trunks as he entered the ring failed to disclose a weapon but once the battle began, it was a different story.

Chewchki takes stoppers off soft drink bottles and can bend silver coins with his teeth. Maybe Luttrell's arm will be in danger at that.

Ticket Purchasers Warned at Moultrie

MOULTRIE, Ga., May 10.—(AP)—Huey Murphy, in charge of tickets for the Moultrie baseball club, warned patrons against the purchase of tickets at bargain prices.

Murphy said a roll of 1936 tickets had been stolen and were being offered for sale. A number of the tickets, similar in color to the new pasteboards, were taken by the gatekeepers before the theft was discovered.

The Old College Try Is Strong in Southern

There Are at Least 23 Collegians in the League; 'Bama Supplies the Most.

By JACK TROY.

The old college try will be much in evidence all summer in the Southern Association.

There will be more rah-rah spirit than otherwise because there are more collegians wearing Southern league uniforms than formerly.

A casual check reveals there are at least 23 former collegians playing with the eight clubs.

7 Floridans Pick Derby Victors 1-2-3

WEST PALM BEACH, May 10.—(AP)—Wilson J. F. Thomas and John O'Rourke, local businessmen, offered a prize of $25 to anyone who could pick the winners of the Kentucky Derby one-two-three, they failed to reckon with the "horse sense" of track followers here who liked War Admiral, Pompoon and Reigning Reward in that order.

After the race at Louisville Saturday Thomas and O'Rourke paid out $175 to seven persons who had named the Derby winners straight, place and show.

And Doc Prothro's sophomores do not, by any means, head the list. Prothro has four young collegians, two of them ex-Alabama stars. Three of Prothro's former cap and gown performers are pitchers.

VOLS HEAD LIST.

But the team that heads the list happens to be those Vain Vols, of Nashville. Headed by Manager Lance Richbourg, who was signed off the Florida campus to these many years by John McGraw, himself, the Vols have six ex-college players on the roster.

Three of them are pitchers, one an infielder and the other two outfielders. Among the ex-collegians of the Vol nine are Wee Willie Duke and Dale Alexander.

Alabama supplies the most players. There are five former Tidermen on three teams. Little Rock and Birmingham have two each and Memphis has one.

CAROLINAS NEXT.

North Carolina schools are next with four, three of them from North Carolina U. and the other from N. C. State.

There's only one player from a northern university. And that's Lou Bush, leading football scorer of the nation for Massachusetts Tech a few years back.

The list follows:

Nashville—Josie Barnes (Wake Forest), pitcher; Willie Duke (N. C. State), outfield; Sharkey Eiland (Miss. State), pitcher; Woodrow Johnson (Tusculum) pitcher; Dale Alexander (Carson-Newman), first base; Lance Richbourg (Florida), manager and utility.

Little Rock—Jim Tabor, third base, and Lee Rogers, pitcher (Alabama); Dick Midkiff (Texas) and Bill Dickman (W. & L.), pitchers.

Atlanta—Alex Hooks (S. M. U.), first base, and Eddie Moore, St. Stanislaus), manager and utility.

Memphis—Dixie Howell (Alabama, third base, and Lou Rush (Massachusetts Tech), second base.

Birmingham—Riggs Stephenson (Alabama), manager and outfield; LeGrant Scott (Alabama), outfield.

New Orleans — Tom Irwin, shortstop; John Humphreys, pitcher (North Carolina), and Greek George (Xylotheque), catcher.

Chattanooga — Howard McFarlane (Oklahoma Teachers), outfield, and Klu Sauerbrun (W. & L.), pitcher.

Knoxville — Beattie Feathers (Tennessee), outfield, and Lewis Whitehead (North Carolina), outfield.

HERE'S THE "MAKIN'S" THEY GO FOR!

ED SLOMA looks up from his newspaper to join in the praise of his favorite "makin's" tobacco. That's the way it goes—most everybody around these parts is a Prince Albert rooter!

"PRINCE ALBERT is the mild, mellow tobacco for makin's cigarettes," opines Lloyd Parker. (He's the fellow about to roll himself one of those good-tasting Prince Albert cigarettes.) "That's why local folks rate P. A. so high," Lloyd adds.

PRINCE ALBERT has the rich taste and mellow goodness roll-your-owners want in this section. Mild and cool on the tongue, because the P. A. people take out the "bite" a special way. Packs right, draws easy, and burns cool, on account of the "crimp cut." Prince Albert has just what you're after in "makin's" cigarettes, men. Better try it. Pipe-smokers, too, call Prince Albert "The National Joy Smoke" for mildness and rich taste!
