

Coffee Wins Atlanta Open Golf Title

Wendell Coffee shot a 67 Wednesday at Fairington Country Club to win the Atlanta Open Golf Tournament with a two-day total of 141.

Coffee, a pro at Flatcreek Country Club in Peachtree City, won $550, as he finished two strokes ahead of Bob Young, Randall Couch, and Jim Grant, who all shot 143s to tie for second.

Curt Wagner had a 144 to take top amateur honors, just one stroke ahead of Joel Velasco.

The B-Division winner was Larry Lloyd, who had a 151. Defending champ Wayne Yates finished with a 149.

The tourney was played at Snapfinger Woods Country Club on Tuesday and Fairington on Wednesday.
