

Anton Claims City Open Golf

Terry Anton rallied from a one-shot deficit after 13 holes Tuesday to win the Atlanta Open Golf Tournament at Snapfinger Woods by three shots.

Second was Barry Harwell, who moved into a tie when Anton bogeyed the 12th hole and then birdied the 13th to become the leader of the 36-hole tournament. But while Anton was making birdies on the 15th and 16th holes, Harwell bogeyed the 14th and then the 16th to fall out of contention.

Anton finished with a 67-71-138 while Harwell shot 70-71-141.

Tied for third at 142 were Rick Fuller, Stan Czerno and Darrell Knicely. Amateur Craig Bagley was sixth with a 144 while Jeff Jerrell, Emory Lee, Rick Gunter and amateur Dicky Thompson shared seventh place with 145s.
