YOUNG HARRIS, Ga. ---- Gray Patisaul of Winder and Rachel Lester of Fayetteville are the winners of the Boys' and Girls' Divisions, respectively, of the Maxfli Georgia Junior PGA Championship. The championship, played Wednesday and Thursday at Brasstown Valley Resort in the Northeast Georgia Mountains, annually attracts the top junior golfers in the state.

Patisaul fired a final round 1-over 73 to finish the event at even par 144, edging Justin Giles of Savannah by one stroke in the boys' 14-17 age division. Defending champion Adam Britt of Loganville rounded out the top three, finishing at 2-over 146 after firing a final round 1-under 71.

Lester finished with a 13-over 157 after firing a closing round 77 to win the Girls' 14-17 division. Finishing in a tie for second place at 17-over 161 were Rebecca Rogers of Alpharetta and Whitie Christie of Perry.

Patisaul and Lester now advance to the National Maxfli PGA Junior Championship, held August 19-22 at PGA National Resort & Spa in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla. They will be joined by more than 100 of the country's top junior players, including the 40 other PGA Section Maxfli Junior Champions and AJGA's Rolex All-Americans.
