MOORE, STUBBLEFIELD CAPTURE MAXFLI GEORGIA PGA JUNIOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Contact: C.A. Phillips
(770) 952-9063

MARIETTA, Ga. ---- Stuart Moore of Gainesville and Leslie Stubblefield of Kennesaw won the Maxfli Georgia PGA Junior Championship Thursday at Brasstown Valley Resort in Young Harris, Ga.

By winning the boys' and girls' divisions respectively, Moore and Stubblefield qualified for the national Maxfli PGA Junior Championship. The national championship will be conducted August 18-21, on the Champion Course at PGA National Golf Club in Palm Beach Gardens, Fla.

Moore, 16, posted a 4-under 68 on Wednesday to go along with his even par 72 Thursday, good enough for a five-stroke victory over Jonathan Fricke of Grayson. Stubblefield, 16, turned in a final-round 79 for a two-day total of 163 and a two-stroke victory over Kingsley Barrett of Gainesville.

The Maxfli PGA Junior Championship, open to boys and girls age 17 and under, will feature a national finals field of boy and girl champions from each of the PGA of America's 41 sections, winners from selected national junior tournaments conducted in 1999, point leaders from the 1999 PGA Junior Series, and members of the 1998 American Junior Golf Association (AJGA) Rolex Junior All-America team. Since 1976, the Championship has attracted a qualifying field of more than 163,000 junior nationwide.

The Maxfli PGA Junior Championship, one of the year's premier events on the junior circuit, has been a popular stop for many of today's PGA and LPGA tour professionals, including Dottie Pepper, Michelle McGann, Justin Leonard, Phil Mickelson, and Tiger Woods.
