

WINS GRANT

Wade Mayo, the Nice Guy, Swings to Junior Crown

Wade Mayo is the type of boy you pull for. He's a nice kid who often comes in second. But Wednesday, he came in first when it counted and made off with the top prize in the second annual State Junior golf championship sponsored by the Georgia Professional Golfers Association.

Wade fired a 73 to go with his Tuesday 74 and the 147 total gave him a three-stroke margin over Augusta's Pat Wiley for the $1,000 scholarship offered to the winner.

Mayo is heading for Florida this year on a partial golf scholarship that could turn into a full if and when he makes the team.

Wiley won a $500 scholarship but he won't be needing it for awhile since he still has a couple of years left in high school.

Also from the 15-16 age group were Bill Herman, playing out of the Berkeley Hills club, and Jeff Jerrell of Marietta, both at 151.

Alan Guyton from East Lake tied Artie McCormick of Augusta at 152 followed by Atlanta Gary Vanover at 153, first-day leader Steve Humber and Dave Ayers at 154, and Ben Voyles at 155.

Ten trophies were awarded in each of three age groups. Topping the 13-14 players were Bryan Persons of Macon, 160; Skip Talbert of Warner Robins, 168; and Turner Curry of Atlanta, 169.
