

Plemmons Cops Griffin Crown

GRIFFIN, Ga., Sept. 6—(AP)—Broyles Plemmons of Valdosta was $100 richer Saturday after staging a spectacular comeback to win the State PGA golf tournament with a 36-hole total of 144.

Plemmons fired a 68 in the last round Friday. His four-under-par tour of the difficult Griffin Municipal Golf Club course netted him the top prize money by three strokes.

Elmer Reed, Atlanta airline pilot, was second with 75-72—147. Henry Lindner of Augusta had 75-73—148 to tie for third place with Maurice Hudson of LaGrange, who shot 74-74—148.

Pooley Hubert of Athens wound up with 83-84—167.
